

Fran Boait

Fran Boait is Executive Director at Positive Money. Before joining Positive Money, Fran was a geoscientist researching carbon dioxide storage. Fran became interested in economics and money creation after realising that the environmental and global poverty crises we face could not easily be fixed without re-thinking how the current economic system works, and how to redesign it.