

HUMAN RIGHTS AND HEALTH CARE AT THE BLEEDING EDGE

A MEDACT-CAPPE CONFERENCE

Friday 9 and Saturday 10 January 2015
Grand Parade campus, University of Brighton BN2 0JY

Programme

Friday

0930-0940 Welcome: Prof Bob Brecher/ Cameron Paine
0940-0950 Frank Arnold: Where is this bleeding edge?
0950-1000 Discussion
1000-1020 Jim Welsh: Dual loyalties and conflicting clinical duties
1050-1110 David Rhys-Jones: Istanbul protocol and the duty to combat torture
1110-1130 Discussion
1130-1200 Coffee break
1200- 1220 Mickey Weingarten: Hunger strikes among Palestinian detainees in Israeli custody
1240-1300 Discussion
1300-1400 Lunch
1400-1420 Hugh Davies – confidentiality, competence, and consent to reveal – call him
1420-1440 Discussion
1440-1500 Daniel Flecknoe – “Cultural sensitivities” and “universal human rights”
1500-1520 Discussion
1520-1550 Tea break
1600 -1620 Charmian Goldwyn – documenting torture among Sri Lankan refugees
1620-1640 Laura Kemmis – working with collective trauma
1700 Finish

Saturday

0930-1030 Are you “entitled” to healthcare? - workshop
0950-1020 Tanya Longman – taking up human rights medicine at home
1020-1100 Coffee break
1100-1140 Whistleblowers
1120-1140 Discussion
1140-1200 Kiran Jobanputra – Ethical dilemmas in a hot zone
1200-1220 Discussion
1220-1240 Healthcare can be a hazardous profession
1240-1300 Discussion
1300-1400 Lunch
1400-1420 Leslie Roberts – Dilemmas in the Ebola crisis in Sierra Leone
1420-1440 Discussion
1440-1500 TBA
1500-1520 Frank Boulton – Medact: using clinical authority in support of human rights and health
1520-1600 Discussion: Next steps
1600 End of conference