

Agenda - Antibiotics and Farming: Prescriptions for change, 14th April 2016, Institute of Child Health

09.15-09.45	Registration/coffee
Morning session – The Issue. Chaired by Peter Melchett, Soil Association
Chair's introduction to the morning	Peter Melchett, Soil Association
Welcome	Professor Rosalind Smyth, Institute of Child Health
Tackling UK farm antibiotic use - challenges & opportunities	John Blackwell, British Veterinary Association
Farm antibiotic use and resistance: overview	Coilin Nunan, Alliance to Save our Antibiotics
Colistin resistance - what we found and why it matters	Professor Timothy Walsh, Cardiff University
Farm antibiotics in the context of global meat consumption trends	Dr Tara Garnett, Food Climate Research Network, University of Oxford
Panel discussion
11.35-11.55	Tea break
Midday session – Learning from others. Chaired by Philip Lymbery, Compassion in World Farming
Chair's introduction to the midday session	Philip Lymbery, Compassion in World Farming
Antibiotic stewardship in the UK dairy sector	David Tisdall, University of Bristol
Lessons from organic	Helen Browning, Soil Association
Lessons from the Netherlands	Dr Hetty Van Beers, The Netherlands Veterinary Medicine Authority
Lessons from Sweden	Dr Jenny Lundström, ReAct
Panel discussion
13.20-14.15	Lunch
Afternoon session – Moving Forward. Chaired by Dr Osman Dar, Chatham House
Chair's introduction to the afternoon	Dr Osman Dar, Chatham House
Protecting public health through effective policy	Kerry McCarthy MP, Shadow Secretary of State for Environment, Food & Rural Affairs
Reducing farm antibiotics through better welfare	Peter Stevenson, Compassion in World Farming
Learning from progress in Europe in human AMR reduction strategies	Professor Barry Cookson, University College London
Panel discussion
Closing remarks	Dr David McCoy, Medact
16.10-16.30	Refreshments
	Close	